THE PLAYERS OF BOTH CONFIDENT.

THEIR STRENGTH TO BE TESTED AT THE POLO GROUNDS THIS AFTERNOON. The great Harrison and Morton ball which rolled in the ranks of Republican armies through the political wars of the fall probably will have to om the battlefield in favor of a small, tough leather ball which will roll on the Polo Grounds to-day. That ball will be rolled, tossed, thrown, kicked, hugged, sat on, get "belted" out of shape, and carry with it the hopes or despair of thousands of young men, the reputation of two well-established mascots, possibly the dollars of some rash persons, and positively the championship of the Intercollegiate Pootball Association of the season of 1888-789. Will Yale retain the championship or will the Princeton team be inspired as it was last Saturday when Harvard's fine team was beaten so handsomely by the Jerseymen! Which is to be the mascot, Dr. Dwight or Dr. Patton? Twenty-two tough, athletic, plucky young men will decide these conundrums by 5 o'clock this afternoon, and the Latin for "Dennis" will be painted on the banner of Yale or Princeton while Princeton or Yale, as the case may be, will be tting a corner on the orange and black, or blue mint market of this town. The game will be called at 2:30 and "Jim" Mutrie, manager of the New-York Baseball Club, figures that from 8,000 to 9,000 people will see the game. He Hotel, Pond's Spaiding's and the Polo Grounds, and when the tickets were first offered there was a string of people waiting at Pond's. Almost every avail able coach, tally ho and drag in the city has been engaged, and the only position of advantage that will not be crowded is the space roped off for the reporters. Mr. Mutrie's police arrangements are admirable and even excited students who jump off the tops of their coaches into the wrong place will not be pardoned. Everybody is advised to go early. The weather clerk seems to have waked up to the fact at there is an era of good feeling between the two colleges, and intends, according to the Signal Service officer on top of the Equitable Building, to signalize that event by clear and warm weather, warmer than This means that a greater crowd will assemble than usual because there will be, in all probability, no great game here on Thanksgiving

The first indications yesterday of the great game were a small army of Yale men who suddenly flooded the Fifth Avenue Hotel late in the afternoon, direct from New-Haven. The drowsy corridors were in stantly electric with excitement, and old politicians caught the fever. Joseph H. Manley watched the coming politicians with interest. The enthusiasm, spirits and courage of the young men were contagious, and old Yale men heard such remarks as "Yes, the bets among college men are 100 to 80 on Yale." men smiled knowingly and said that sagacions sportsmen like "Jim" Mutrie were back-And so it went until laymen were at sea and believed that chance would settle the result, so evenly matched the teams appeared. The Yale team arrived at the Fifth Avenue Hotel with its supporters, and was reported to be in excellent

The Princeton team surprised its friends by turning supporters. Captain Cowan said that his men were all

A. A. Stacg. of the Yaie eleven, said that he did not Yaie would willingly play Harvard at New-Haven.

Both the Princeton and Yaie players turned in early

STILL AT WORK FOR YELLOW FEVER VICTIMS. A reading in aid of the sufferers from yellow fever at Jacksonville will be given by Mrs. Sherwood at her home, No. 18 West Thirty-second-st., on Wednes-day afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Jacksonville Re-Hef Society has also completed arrangements for an amateur matinee to be given at the Lyceum Theatre on December 4, at 2 o'clock, the proceeds to be used for the relief of the sufferers.

The Woman's National Relief Association (Blue

Anchor) appeals to the public for clothing for des-titute women and children in Jacksonville. This association heretofore felt that the more than efficient committee who have been raising money were doing all that was required; but in answer to a letter written to Bishop Weed, of Florida, comes a reply from the committee in Jacksonville that the above articles are needed. They make an appeal, therefore, for readymade clothing or money to purchase the same, thas much as the funds belonging to the Blue Anchor oclety are pledged for specific purposes, aid for the shipwrecked. GOVERNOR HILL LEAVES TOWN IN A HURRY. Governor David B. Hill, who has been resting for a few days at the Hoffman House, after his trip to Fortress Monroe, left the city somewhat hastily yes terday morning. After an early breakfast, he took a double carriage from the side entrance of the hotel shortly after 9 o'clock, and was driven to the Grand Central Station. He reached there just in time to rush aboard the Chicago Limited train which was about to start. The Govern is wore a happy, con-tented expression of countenance and a brand new slik hat, presumably won on the election.

NO NEWS FROM THE BLACK REPUBLIC. Consul-General Bassett said yesterday that he had no news to communicate in relation to the disturbed affairs of Havti which had not already been made public. He was expecting some fresh advices from the black republic by a West Indian steamer which is due here to-morrow. He understood that negotiations were on foot to patch up a peace between the Haytian Government and the rebels. There were several ships now at this port intending to sail for Hayti soon and they were being carefully watched to see what went on board.

A SITE FOR A NEW ARMORY CHOSEN. The Armory Board decided yesterday to purchase for $400,000 the property in Fourth-ave., between Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth sts. for an armory. It has not yet been decided whether the 71st or the 9th Regiment will be the lucky possessor; probably the former, although the 9th asserts a prior claim. The title will be acquired by condemnation proceedings, and the Corporation Counsel was requested to proceed accordingly. Other armory sites were offered and placed on file. Some of the members of the 71st Regiment prefer to have their armory placed in Harlem.

The presentation of the 5th Regiment protest drew from the Mayor a question as to why it had been passed by, apparently, in the distribution of new armories.

"I can answer you, I think," said General Fitzgerald; "The Inspector-General has recommended that this regi-ment be disbanded, and the Examining Board has ordered its Colonel before them for examination as to his fitness for continuing in the position he holds. Under the cir-cumvances it would scarcely be wise to put the sum of $60,000 in an armory for that regiment."

TO WIDEN AND EXTEND COLLEGE PLACE. THE BOARD OF STREET OPENING FAVORS THIS PLAN, BUT LEAVES THE ELM-ST. PROJECT

IN AREYANCE. The Board of Street Opening yesterday brought to an end its two years' consideration of a plan for the relief of Broadway by opening a thoroughface either east or west of it, and left the question to be decided by the Board which will succeed it next year, with Mayor Grant at its head. The Board signalized its farewell of the subject by spreading upon the minutes a memorandum offered by Mayor Hewitt, alluding to the many hearings it has held in reference to the Elm-st, opening and its alternative proposition the opening of College place, together with the reports furnished by the Societies of Civil and Mechanical Engineers, and announcing the following as the conclusions reached as to the proposed Improvement. 1. That the continuation of Elm and Centre sts. to Latarette place would be a desirable public improvement, the expense of which would be justified by the additional facilities for transit, provided the street was well paved and kept free from surface railways laid with an objectionable rail, such as is now used on the other streets in the city. 2. That the widening of Elm-st. to Cham would be a very expensive operation, not merely for the cost of the right of way, but for the changes of grade which cost of the right of way, but for the changes are the second recessarily be made at the intersecting streets. From the information furnished to the board, we are of the opinion that the widening of this street would not materially relieve the concession of business below Chambers at., unless the street were continued at least 2s far as Maiden Lane, and better still, to Pine-st. The cost of Maiden Lane, and better still, to Prinest. The cost of this extension would be enermous, and the board are, therefore, not prepared to recommend that this improve-ment should be made. In other words, they are of opinion that the cost of the improvement would not be justified by any advantages which would result therefrom.

3. The board are of opinion that College place should be extended from Barclay-st, to Greenwich-st., substantialiy as proposed on the map submitted by the Department of Puolic Works. This opinion is unqualified. They also believe that the widening of College place upon the west side would inevitably follow the extension above proposed and therefore the board is of opinion that College place should be widened at the same time that the extension i made. This, in our opinion, is rendered necessary from the fact that the two great avenues, Hudson-st, and West Broadway, converge at Chambers et. These streets are about to be paved in the best possible manner, and the about to be paved in the best possible manner, and the congestion which now exists at Chambers at will be very much increased by this improvement. The board, therefore, records its judgment in favor of the improvement on the west side, rather than on the east side, because an actual count shows that the obstruction to traffic in Broadway comes mainly from the west side, and not from the east side, and that it would cease if proper avenues of transit are opened upon the west side of the

The Controller reserves his judgment as to the opening and widening of Eimst.

After Controller Myers had stated his position Alderman Dowling, who had come in while the Mayor was reading the memorandum, expressed himself strongly in favor of relief being given to College if strongly in favor of relief being given to Colleg-ace at Chambers-st.

The memorandum was adopted without dissent.

AFTER ASSISTANT APPRAISER BROWN. MERCHANTS GO TO WASHINGTON TO MAKE A COMPLAINT AGAINST HIM-WHAT MR. BROWN SAYS ABOUT IT.

Edward A. Brown, the Assistant Appraiser at this port, against whom a delegation of eight merchants of this city yesterday, in Washington, preferred charges before Treasury officials of unlawful discrimination and general misconduct in office, has charge of the sixth division of the Appraiser's office, and his specialty is wool and woollen importations. He was ished yesterday about the charges against him. "It is the renewing of an old fight," said Mr. Brown, begun against me three years ago, when I first took office. At that time a delegation of fifteen merchants went on to Washington, and nothing ever came of it. This time I hear that only eight are in Washington I do not know their names. All I know is what I read in the papers this morning. But I enter a general denial of any charges they may bring against me. believe the charges are in substance that I advanced goods and my advance was not sustained on reap praisment. That often happens. Sometimes my advances are not sustained and sometimes they are First, I had trouble with Turkish and Eastern goods. and this time it is cheap English goods, which have risen in value on the other side. I refterate that I have never persecuted anybody here, but simply did my duty, saved the Government about $2,000,000, nd have been sustained all the way through by the Appraiser, my superior officer. I was thirty years in the woollen business in this city, and I know something about it."

Appraiser McMillin declared to the reporter that Mr. Emwn was one of the best officers he had.

Collector Magone said that he would not take any ction against Mr. Brown until he had received official instructions from his superiors in Washington.

The merchants who visited Washington to prefer charges against Mr. Brown are Daniel McKeever, Werner, P. B. Worrall, Jerome Bernheimer, John Irish, H. Witteman, G. H. Dunham and Thomas Stewart. They lodged charges and specifications in writing with Assistant Secretary Maynard against the Appraiser's department generally, and Mr. Brown's division in particular. The charges are said to have convinced Mr. Maynard that the case is a serious one against Mr. Brown, and he will give the matter his personal attention. If he does not come to this city himself, he may send a commission of experts to ventilate the big building at Laight and Washington sts.

BREWERS' LOCKOUT POSTPONED.

she threatened lockout of the Ale and Porter Bos Brewers' Association of their employes, for boycotting the brewery of David Steverson, has been postponed until Wednesday in order to give the Central Labor Union and the Ale and Porter Brewery Employes' Protective Association more time to consult their own interests and lift the boycott. A. E. J. Tovey, Editor of "The Brewers' Journal," said yesterday that one of the reasons for the extension of time was to furnish the men with a copy of the decision of the committee that investigated the charges again. Stevenson. The decision vindicates Mr. Stevenson, and it is thought by the bosses that if the men consider it carefully, they will not be so anxious to precipitate a lockout. The Ale and Porter Brewery Employes' Protective Association have unanimously decided that the investigation of the boss brewers' committee was nothing Secretary Lyman, of the Protective As sociation, said vesterday that the Central Labor Union would not remove the boycott until Mr. Stevenson con sented to stand by his agreement with his men. To-morrow's session of the Central Labor Union will be a lively one, and will be the real battleground, where the men will fight it out among themselves and decide for or against a lockout and its concomitant miseries.

ADOLPH REICH AWAITS HIS FATE. Adolph Reich, the condemned wife-murderer, en tered yesterday upon what will be the last week of his life unless Governor Hill commutes his sentance, but he betrayed no signs of uneasiness over the pros-pect. He does not know enough English to converse readily with his guards, and he spends much of his time in reading. He expresses confidence in the result of the appeal which will be made to Governor Hill time in reading. in his behalf on Monday afternoon, and he causes little trouble to his guards. Especial precautions have been taken, however, to prevent any attempt at suicide, and he does not even enter a cell to sleep. The entire first floor of the new prison has been given up to him, and he sleeps on a cot that has placed in the broad corridor, where he is always under the eyes of two of Sheriff Grant's deputies. He is careful to observe all the requirements of the Hebrew religion and Rabbi Hirsch calls at the Tombs every day to see him.

NOT COLD ENOUGH YET FOR SKATING. The cold air of yesterday started the imagination of the schoolboy toward the prospective skating in Central Park. Workmen are getting ready the skating-house on the large lake and will have it open, Superintendent Parsons re-marked yesterday, before the skating season arrives. GONE WITH A NEWSPAPER'S MONEY.

THE GAY CASHIER OF "THE DAILY NEWS" TAKES TO FLIGHT TO AVOID AN INVESTIGATION.

The counting-room of "The Daily News," in Park Row, has been in a state of turmoil for several days on account of the sudden disappearance of Olaf Sunde. Last Wednesday morning it became neised about "The Daily News" office that the books ere to be examined by an expert. Sunde heard of this and at an opportune me all the available cash in the safe, locked the latter, put the keys in his pocket and walked out. This was at about, 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, and the eashier has not been seen since. The safe had to be orened by an expert.

It is variously estimated in the office that Sunde took with him in a lump from $1,000 to $5,000, the amount being probably nearer the latter figure. The books are now being examined, and some additional peculations of former dates are said to have been dis-

Sunde is a good-looking young man of about thirtyfive and is unmarried. He lived at No. 476 Belford-ave, Brooklyn. He was in the employ of "The Daily News" for ten years, and enjoyed the full confidence of his superiors until last summer, when his reckless issipation at Manhattan Beach was talked abroad. sunde occupied one of the best suites in the hotel, kept a male body servant and indulged in every luxury. To friends, who asked him how he could afford such extravagance, he invariably replied that e regularly received remittances from Europe. Mr. Brown, one of the proprietors of the paper, said yes-terday: "I heard of that and have been keeping an eye on him ever since. I thought some things sus-pictous lately, and ordered the examination of the books. I am afraid Sunde's peculations amount to a considerable sum."

The Sunde defalcation follows on the heels of that of Max Marcus, also of "The Daily News," who about a year ago defaulted and afterward committed suicide.

A STUDENTS MISSIONARY CONFERENCES The fifth annual Students' Missionary Conference will be held to-morrow afternoon and evening in Association Hall, at Twenty-third-st. and Fourth-ave. At each session, the last half hour or more will be devoted to a "Quiz," at which ques-tions will be answered on all phases of medical and other missionary work. A special effort is being made to interest college students in the work.

The crippled man had secured from friends $189, with which he was about to buy a pair of artificial hands. Smith stole the money and ran away. He was found guilty of grand larceny and will be sentenced on Monday.

BANKS WANT THE CITY'S MONEY ON TIME. The Tax Collector of Brooklyn and the banks of that city, which are the depositories of the city's money, are at odds because the Collector does not send in his deposits before the close of banking hours. He says that it is impossible to do so. The city's charter obliges him to bank the money the day that it is received and during the month of December the receipts are large and it is oftentimes midnight before they are counted. The banks object to keeping clerks on duty and the Collector objects to keeping the receipts, amounting sometimes to $1,000,000, in

PLANS FOR A CHESS TOURNAMENT.

AN INTERESTING CONTEST, WITH LARGE PRIZES,

PROMISED. The sixth American Chess Congress, which will begin the first week of April, 1889, will be a notable gathering for chess players. The preliminary programme has already been issued by the secretary, C. Schubert, of No. 12 First-st., and it contains much interesting matter. The prizes offered are large, and are sufficient to excite the interest of the best chess players of the country. Seven prizes in all are offered for competition, and the amounts are $1,000 and $750, $600, $500, $400, $300 and $200. These sums are all minimum, and are to be increased if the funds rmit. The entrance fee will be $25, and in addition a deposit of $25 will be required.
